

Naisuyo campsite offers immersive local safari and organize cultural activities along the Ewaso Nyiro

River and across the beautiful Laikipia ecosystem in Laikipia, Kenya. The campsite is a unique by itself since it's culturally made and it's in Maasai manyatta thus gives our clients enough time to explore about our origin and cultural structures through our Indigenous people.

Safari and Wildlife Activities

- Guided Game Drives: Morning and early evening drives led by expert Maasai guides to spot elephants, lions, reticulated giraffes, and cheetahs, etc.
- Bush Walks: Guided walking safaris to track wildlife and experience the landscape up close.
- Wildlife Tracking: Join local conservationists and trackers on specialized missions.
- Bird Watching: Spot over 350 bird species, including resident owls and fish eagles.
- Wildlife Photography: Participate in curated photography trips led by visiting experts.

Cultural and Community Experiences

. Maasai Entertainment, the incredible Local Maasai cultural activities, Singing, Traditional herbal medicine, Showcase spear throwing, Blacksmith making work, Maasai Elderly draft betting, Beading by the experts Maasai women, learning all about the Maasai indigenous people lifestyle.

Traditional Conservation: Learn firsthand about how the Maasai indigenous people have managed to live side by side with wildlife for centuries and what special skills they have.

Relaxation

- Campfires: Unwind by the evening campfire , sipping Local brew prepared by Maasai elderly or sharing wine ,story telling and indigenous Bush knowledge sharing.
-